Published by Authority.

From Tuesday November 9, to Saturday November 13, 1762.

AT the Council Chamber Whitehall, the 10th of November 1762,

PRESENT,

The Lords of His Majesty's most Honourable Privy Council.

IT is this Day ordered in Council, That the Embargo, at present subsisting upon Ships and Vessels laden, or to be laden, in the Ports of Great Britain and Ireland, with Provisions, be taken off. And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, and the Lord Lieutenant, or in his Absence, the Lords Justices of His Majesty's Kingdom of Ireland, are to give such Directions for Taking off the said Embargo, as to them may respectively appertain.

Hen. Fane.

St. James's, November 13.

The following Address of the Lord Lieutenant, High Sheriff, Nobility, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Sussex, has been presented to His Majesty by Thomas Pelham and John Butler, Esqrs. their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Lord Lieutenant, High Sheriff, Nobility, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Sussex.

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lord Lieutenant, High Sheriff, Nobility, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Sussex, humbly beg Leave to present to your Majesty our most sincere Congratulations on the safe Delivery of the Queen, and the Birth of a Prince. An Event that fills our Hearts with the utmost Joy, as it adds to your Majesty's domestic Happiness; gives the most pleasing Expectation to your People; and renders that auspicious and ever memorable Day still more dear to us, when our Civil and Religious Rights were secured, by the happy Accession of your Majesty's Royal Family to the Throne of these Kingdoms.

Fully sensible of the many Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's Government, we most earnestly beseech the Almighty to preserve your Majesty, your Royal Consort, and the Prince of Wales; and to grant, that your Majesty's Reign, over a free and happy People, may be long and prosperous; and that there may never be wanting an Heir, immediately descended from your Majesty, to inherit your Majesty's Virtues, and to succeed to the Crown of these Realms.

Permit us likewise to take this Opportunity of expressing to your Majesty our most hearty Concurrence in the general Joy of the whole Nation, on the late glorious Success of your Majesty's Forces, in the Reduction of the valuable and important Town and Port of the Havannah, and in the weakening your Majesty's Enemies, by taking so great a Number of their Capital Ships.

The following Address of the High Sheriff, Nobility, Gentry, and Clergy of the County of Nottingham, has been presented to His Majesty by the Right Honourable Lord Robert Sutton, one of their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the High Sheriff, Nobility, Gentry, and Clergy of the County of Nottingham, assembled at Nottingham the 13th of October, 1762.

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the High Sheriff, Nobility, Gentry, and Clergy of the County of Nottingham, humbly beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty upon the safe Delivery of your Royal Consort the Queen, and the Birth of a Prince, Heir Apparent to the Crown of these Realms.

We are truly sensible that the safe and peaceable Enjoyment of our Religion and Liberties, and all that is valuable and dear to us, depends upon the lasting Establishment of the Protestant Succession in your Majesty's August House; and therefore our Hearts are filled with the sincerest Joy upon this auspicious Event, which enlargeth our Prospect of the Continuance of these Blessings to future Ages.

Permit us, most gracious Sovereign, to embrace this Opportunity of further congratulating your Majesty upon the glorious Success, with which it hath pleased the Supreme Disposer of all Events to bless your Majesty's Fleets and Armies at the Havannah: This most seasonable and important Conquest, gained by the distinguished Courage and Gallantry of British Forces, giveth us the most pleasing Assurance of what may hereafter be expected from them upon every Occasion, where the Honour and Interest of your Majesty's Crown and Kingdoms are concerned.

We most earnestly implore the King of Kings to grant your Majesty a long and prosperous Reign over an obedient and grateful People, as well for the Prosperity of these Nations, as the good of all Europe; and that the Happiness we enjoy under your wise and just Administration, may be continued by a Race of Princes descended from your Majesty, and ruling after your bright and pious Example, to our latest Posterity.

The following Address of the Magistrates and Common-Council of the City of Glasgow, has been presented to His Majesty by the Right Hon. the Lord

Lord Frederick Campbell, Repreſentative in Parliament for Rotheſay, Inverary, &c. being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Magiſtrates and Common-Council of the City of Glaſgow.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

WE the Provoſt, Baillies, and City Council of Glaſgow, in Common-Council aſſembled, humbly beg Leave, in Behalf of this your faithful and loyal Corporation, to approach your Majeſty's Throne, and with the moſt unfeigned Joy, to congratulate the auſpicious Birth of his Royal Highneſs the Prince of Wales, and the happy Recovery of your moſt Amiable and Auguſt Conſort the Queen.

Permit us, at the ſame Time, with moſt grateful Acknowledgments to the Supreme Being, to felicitate your Majeſty on the late moſt ſignal Succeſs of your Arms in the Conqueſt and Reduction of the Havannah and its Dependencies: An Event, which will render a Reign, already greatly Illuſtrious, memorable to all future Ages. May your Majeſty's domeſtick Joys and Felicity be permanent, and increaſe with your Years: May his Royal Highneſs long be preſerved to inherit and emulate the Virtues of his Illuſtrious Progenitors; and late, very late, may he fill the Throne of Britain, and reign over a free, loyal, happy, and united People.

May Heaven continue to direct your Majeſty's Councils, and to animate your Fleets and Armies; and may the unparalleled Succeſſes with which it has pleaſed God to bleſs your Majeſty's Arms during this juſt and neceſſary War, terminate in an equitable, glorious, and laſting Peace.

Signed in Preſence, and by Appointment,
Glaſgow, Oct. 21, 1762. Arch. Ingram, Provoſt.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgeſſes, and principal Inhabitants of the Borough of St. Albans, having been tranſmitted by James Weſt, Eſq; one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament, to the Earl of Egremont, one of His Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been preſented to His Majeſty: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgeſſes, and principal Inhabitants of your ancient Borough of St. Albans, beg Leave to offer to your Majeſty our moſt ſincere Congratulations on the Birth of a Prince, and on the Safety and Recovery of the Queen.

Senſible, as we are, of the Bleſſings, which the Acceſſion of your Majeſty's Illuſtrious Houſe to the Throne, has ſecured to theſe Kingdoms; and of the Happineſs we enjoy under your Majeſty's auſpiciou Reign, we muſt feel the higheſt Satisfaction on an Event, which promiſes us all that was wanting to compleat our Happineſs, the Continuance of it to our Poſterity, under a Race of Princes deſcended from your Majeſty.

May the Virtues, that adorn your Majeſty, deſcend with your Crown, to all our future Sovereigns, and inſure the Liberties, the Religion, and the Laws of your happy People, to the moſt diſtant Generations.

The following Addreſs of the Steward, Bayliff, and principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Cirenceſter, has been preſented to His Majeſty by James Witſhed, Eſq; one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Steward, Bayliff, and principal Inhabitants of the ancient Borough of Cirenceſter.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE humbly beg Permiſſion to aſſure your Majeſty, that, as none of your Subjects are more dutiful and loyal, none can be more rejoiced than we are at thoſe important Events, the Birth of the Prince, and the perfect Recovery of the Queen. The Proſperity of our Sovereign being inſeparably connected with that of his People, every Inſtance of it, whether publick or private, muſt be the Joy of Millions. Ardent beyond Expreſſion is our Prayer, that the Life of the Prince may be long and happy; and moſt pleaſing is our Proſpect, that he will be trained up to every Accompliſhment, and every Virtue that can render him a diſtinguiſhed Ornament and Bleſſing to theſe Nations.

Allow us to congratulate your Majeſty not only on your Felicity in the tranquil Scenes of domeſtick Life, but on the military Glories of your Reign. The expeditious Recovery of Newfoundland ought not to be forgotten in your Royal Preſence; much leſs the amazing Reduction of the Havannah, with its Fleet and immenſe Treaſure.

The Wiſdom of your Majeſty's Counſels in planning the laſt mentioned Enterprize; the Conduct, the Unanimity, the Gallantry of your Officers by Sea and Land, with the invincible Spirit and Perſeverance of your Forces, in carrying it into Execution, are beyond all Praiſe

It hath long been familiar to France to be humbled by Britiſh Valour. The Temerity of Spain is now ſeverely chaſtiſed, and that Nation ought to be convinced, that the Britiſh Lyon is not to be provoked with Impunity.

We pretend not to be Maſters of a political Balance, in which to weigh the Advantages that may be expected in a Treaty, againſt the Expences and Acquiſitions of Conqueſt: But we pleaſe ourſelves with the Hope, that the Ends of a juſt War will be fully ſecured; and a Peace eſtabliſhed, that ſhall be equitable as well as glorious, in order to be ſafe and laſting.

The following Addreſs of the Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Cardigan, has been preſented to His Majeſty: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly,

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and devoted Subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Cardigan, approach your Throne with joyful Hearts, and with the deepeſt Senſe of Gratitude to that merciful Providence, which has bleſſed your Royal Bed with an Heir apparent to theſe your Dominions.

May the ſame Providence permit, that he may live and be happy; That the Seeds of a virtuous and uſeful Education, ſown by the Care of his Royal Parents, may ripen into a glorious Harveſt; That he may form his Morals by the Standard of their Perfections, and his Mind by the Example of their Wiſdom; That at the fatal Hour, when his Royal Father muſt pay the Debt of Nature, in Favour both with God and Man, he may catch the falling Sceptre, and aſcending the Throne of his Anceſtors, perpetuate that Syſtem of Rule, the End of which may be juſtly termed, the Happineſs of Mankind.

The

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgeſſes and Principal Inhabitants of Falmouth in the County of Cornwall, has been preſented to His Majeſty by the Right Honourable the Lord Viſcount Falmouth, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgeſſes and Principal Inhabitants of the Town of Falmouth in the County of Cornwall.

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects moſt humbly beg Leave to congratulate your Majeſty on the auſpicious Birth of the Prince, the Hereditary Duke of this County; and to this glorious Event, to add our hearty Congratulations alſo on the late ſignal Succeſs of your Majeſty's Arms, in the great and important Conqueſt of the the Havannah and the Spaniſh Fleet there: And we pray, that the Almighty may bleſs and preſerve your Sacred Majeſty and your Royal Conſort; and alſo the Prince, that he may live to be the Glory of your Majeſty's moſt Auguſt Houſe, and a Bleſſing to this Nation, and that your Majeſty may triumph over all your Enemies.

Given under our Common Seal of the ſaid Town, the 28th Day of October, 1762, and in the 3d Year of your Majeſty's Reign.

Peterſbourg, October 12. We received Yeſterday the agreeable News of her Imperial Majeſty's Coronation on the 3d Inſtant, at Moſcow, and that the Ceremony was conducted with the greateſt Order and Magnificence.

There were ſeveral Promotions upon that Occaſion, the Particulars of which are not exactly known, except that the Three Brothers Orloff are created Counts; and it is further ſaid, the Court is to return hither this Winter.

Hague, November 5. A Courier is juſt arrived here, from Saxony, with the News of a complete Victory obtained the 29th paſt, near Freyberg, by Prince Henry of Pruſſia, over the United Armies of Auſtrians and Imperialiſts, under the Command of the Prince de Stolberg, in the Abſence of General Haddick, who was gone to Dreſden. His Royal Highneſs attacked the Enemy at Day-break, and the Action laſted till Two in the Afternoon, when the Enemy was entirely routed, and obliged to quit the Field of Battle, and the Town of Freyberg, to the Pruſſians; who took beſides from 5 to 6000 Priſoners, 30 Cannons, and ſeveral Colours and Standards. What made the Circumſtances of this Battle, according to the above Account, ſo much the more glorious, were, that Prince Henry had with him a Part only of his Troops; the Corps under General Hulſen having only made ſome Movements to facilitate the Operations of his Royal Highneſs; and the Reinforcement under the Count de Neuwied having gotten no farther the Day of the Battle than the Neighbourhood of Groſſenhayn.

Some Letters from Tarreda, the Spaniſh Camp in the Kingdom of Portugal, dated the 13th paſt, mention, that the Difficulty of making the Roads paſſable for their Artillery, and the great Scarcity of Forage between that Place and Abrantes, kept them ſtill in the ſame Situation, having Villa Velha on their Left, Sebrea Formoſa in the Front, and the Main Body of their Army at Tarreda.

St. James's, November 12.

DR. JAMES's Powder for FEVERS, and other Inflammatory Diſtempers, publiſhed by Virtue of His MAJESTY's ROYAL LETTERS PATENT, will remove (as has been experienced in many Thouſand Caſes) any continual acute Fever in a few Hours, though attended with Convulſions, Light-headedneſs, and the worſt Symptoms: But if taken in the Beginning of a Fever, one Doſe is generally ſufficient to perform a Cure. *

It is likewiſe a moſt effectual Remedy for all internal Inflammation, Pleuriſies, Quincies, acute Rheumatiſms, and the Lowneſs of Spirits, and Uneaſineſſes proceeding from ſlow and latent Fevers, which are generally miſtaken for Vapours and Hyſterics; it is extremely effectual in the Small-Pox, Meaſles, and St. Anthony's Fire; and a ſingle Doſe remarkably ſtops the Progreſs of a Cold, and certainly prevents the ill Conſequences ariſing from that very common Diſorder, the Source of almoſt all Diſtempers.

This Powder (which is a very ſafe and pleaſant Medicine to take) is ſold by J. Newbery at the Bible and Sun in St. Paul's Church Yard, London; and by J. Hoey, jun. in Skinner Row, Dublin; at 2s. 6d. the two Doſes, with good Allowance to thoſe who buy it for charitable Uſes, or to ſell again.
